This chalet is located at the entrance of Sandimen Township and Wutai Township, and is the gateway of Sandimen. This is a must for many tourists, as there are a number of scenic spots around, including the Mao Lin National Scenic Area, Taiwan Aboriginal Cultural Park, and Gu Chuan Bridge at Wu Tai. We serve food and beverages, and offer handicrafts, souvenirs, and rural accommodation. The gifts shop here has the display of the handicrafts made by the victims of the 2009 typhoon disasters for sale. The proceeds from the sale will go to the victims. Furthermore, the art work "We cannot go without you", designed by us, has been selected as one of the top 10 souvenirs. This item is also for sale at the shop. The whole setting here is decorated with a strong accent of the aboriginal tribe. We make the best of our effort to provide you "a place even worthwhile for meditation". Your patronage is our pleasure.

Information Station—Truly Outstanding Friendly Service

"Excuse me, where can we taste great food?" "Excuse me, what are the specialty products of this region?" If you have any question during your journey in Taiwan, come to the Information Station and say "Excuse me—" You may be pleasantly surprised!

In order to help independent travelers have their question answered via friendly, Taiwanese-style service, the Taiwan Tourism Bureau has collaborated with friendly stores and service providers throughout Taiwan to establish "Information Stations" that help visitors in Taiwan.

You can spot an "Information Station" by its yellow, round "Information Station" sign with black letters. Besides wall maps and friendly travel information services, the station also has a Wi-Fi hotspots and QR codes that guide visitors to a variety of cloud-based travel services.

Information Stations add "local characteristics" and "hospitality" to your journey. The aim is to create moving experiences that will encourage visitors to come back time after time, so that they can continue to enjoy the beauty of Taiwan and the warm hospitality of her people.

Come on, don't be shy: everyone is invited to make inquiries at the "Information Station"!
